

BLACK PEAT

Decomposed peat, for substrate production used decomposition levels H7-H8

Highly humified, poorly drained peat that is permanently saturated with water

Color dark brown

Plant residues are highly decomposed

Quick water absorption

Highest water holding capacity

Good buffering ability

High bulk density, less compressible

