

WHITE PEAT

Slightly decomposed peat with decomposition level H2-H4

Extracted from the top layers of a peat field

Color from yellow to light brown

The botanical structure of the peat forming plants can still be recognized

Slow water absorption

High porosity

Acid environment

Highest level of organic matter ~98%

Disease suppressive – because of high populations of „friendly microorganisms“ such as Trichoderma etc.

