

Chou Moellier

Chou Moellier | Kale

Hardy kale variety that just keeps on giving. Tastes a bit like a brassica blend of cabbage and Brussels with a lovely crisp texture. Use the young leaves as a raw green veggie, steam it, boil it, juice it - there are just too many ways to enjoy this variety! It does not really matter. It's just an awesome crop to have in your winter garden. Ready for harvest around 65+ days.

One of the most popular cultivar around Africa region.
