

Tomato | Determinate Processor

HTP 328 F1

HTP 328 F1 | Main-Season Tomato

One of the best processors on the market and used by processing groups local and across the world. Dubbel up for the HAWKER market.

Specifications:

|                   |                                                                                                                      |
|-------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Cultivation:      | Open field                                                                                                           |
| Type:             | Loose                                                                                                                |
| Days to maturity: | 80 – 90 days after transplant                                                                                        |
| Fruit shape:      | Blocky                                                                                                               |
| Fruit weight:     | 90 – 120 grams                                                                                                       |
| Resistances:      | Verticillium, Fusarium 1,2,3 Tomato Mosaic Virus, Nematodes, Pseudomonas, Stemphylium, Tomato Yellow leaf Curl Virus |